Mary Anne Hobbs, the BBC Radio 1 firebrand at the helm of the Experimental show, presents Evangeline, a collection of future beats, underground dubstep, grime, dark dancefloor, techno, and electronica. The album is a follow-up to the seminal Warrior Dubz released by Planet Mu in 2006, and represents the darker side of experimental electronic music.

Featuring 16 exclusive tracks from Flying Lotus, Magnetic Man (Benga, Artwork, and Skream), Shackleton, Darqwan, DJ Pinch, Surgeon, Boxcutter, Wiley, Claro Intelecto, and Ben Frost, Evangeline is all set to ignite dancefloors worldwide.

The compilation will be promoted by shows in UK and Europe including a Sonar showcase featuring Shackleton, Mala, and Flying Lotus.
